

Prague Centre for Transatlantic Relations (PCTR)
and
Embassy of the Republic of Korea invite you to the seminar

Lessons of 1989, Czech Transition and Korean Peninsula: A Model for Peaceful Reunification?

CEVRO Institute, Jungmannova 17, Praha 1
November 13, 2014

Program:

15:00 – 15:10 Welcome Remarks

- Ivan Langer, Chairman of the Board, CEVRO Institute
- H.E. Moon Hayong, Ambassador of the Republic of Korea

15:10 – 16:40 Helsinki Process, Fall of the Iron Curtain and Geopolitical Framework

- Alexandr Vondra, Director, Prague Centre for Transatlantic Relations
- Michael Romancov, Faculty of Social Sciences, Charles University
- Tomáš Pojar, Vice President for International Relations, CEVRO Institute

Comments: Cho Nam Hoon, Director, Center for Security & Strategy, Korea Institute for Defense Analyses

Moderator: Michal Vodrážka, Czech National Bank, Association for International Affairs (AMO)

16:40 – 17:00 Coffee Break

17:00 – 18:30 Lessons Learned: Czech Political, Economic and Societal Transition

- Stanislav Balík, Faculty of Social Studies, Masaryk University
- Dušan Tříška, Research Fellow, The Institute of Václav Klaus
- Ivo Pospíšil, General Secretary, Constitutional Court

Comments: Kim Kyuryoon, Senior Research Fellow, Korean Institute for National Reunification

Moderator: Alexandr Vondra, Director, PCTR

18:30 – 18:35 Closing Remarks

18:35 – 20:00 Buffet Dinner

Working language is English. Due to organizational matters we kindly ask you to confirm your participation by email to pctr@vsci.cz.